

McHenry, Chittenango Times; Joseph A. Farrell, Albany Times-Union, and James H. Potts, Troy Times.
After adopting the report unanimously the convention adjourned.

NEW YORK PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Meets at Buffalo, Listens to Addresses, and Elects Officers.

BUFFALO, June 13.—President William Kline of the New York Press Association called the annual convention of that body to order in Statler's Hotel this morning and delivered his annual address. Addresses were delivered by Daniel D. Frisbie, on "Editorials"; Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles B. Skinner, on "The Newspaper as an Educator," and J. L. McArthur, on the "Press and People." W. A. Paber read a poem entitled "It Goes."

The Committee on Organization reported as follows: President—W. A. Smith, Owego Times; Secretary—W. A. Smith, Owego Times; Treasurer—H. O. Bunnell, Dansville Advertiser; Vice Presidents—Daniel D. Frisbie, Schoharie Republican; E. S. Underhill, Corning Democrat; J. P. Herrick, Bolivar Breeze; A. E. Blunck, Johnstown Republican, and F. H. Hurd, Medina Tribune; Executive Committee—H. J. Knapp, Watertown Times; Luke