

FULLER GOLF CUP TAKEN BY WALKER

He Beats Fowler, Holder of Trophy, by Three Strokes on Richmond County Links.

SWEETSER IN GOOD FORM

Paired With Carlson,—Metropolitan Champion Leads Reid and Anderson at Ardsley.

With a selected score of 68, A. Lucian Walker, former intercollegiate champion and semi-finalist in the recent metropolitan amateur championship at Lakewood, captured the Henry J. Fuller Trophy for 1922 at the Richmond County Country Club, Staten Island, yesterday. The competition narrowed down to Walker and E. W. Fowler, the latter having won the trophy in the last two years and needing only one more victory for permanent possession. His selected score, however, was three strokes more than that of Walker.

The competition was over the thirty-six-hole route and Walker had a 77 in the morning and a 73, two over par, in the afternoon. Fowler had two rounds of 77.
