Few Months Amount There
Will Be Raised.

The Woodrow Wilson Foundation announced here yesterday that South Carolina had joined the "Wilson group" of States in a race for completion of quotas in the fund of $1,000,000, which is to be used in the creation of a series of annual prizes for meritorious public service. The District of Columbia is in this group, with Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

In her letter to the foundation, Mrs. W. D. Melton, State Chairman of the Women's Division in South Carolina, told of the years spent by Woodrow Wilson as a boy in Columbia, S. C., where his father was a professor in the Theological Seminary. She said:

"South Carolina does not say that she will be among the first to subscribe her quota, as we have been somewhat delayed in beginning this campaign, but we can assure you that South Carolina in the next few months will more than reach its quota, giving just recognition to Woodrow Wilson, one of our greatest Americans and one of our very own. We are confident that the women of South Carolina will over-subscribe their share of the State's quotas as the reports that are coming in now give evidence."
