LABOR ALSO GIVING A LIFT

Officer of United Mine Workers of America Sends $50 Toward Foundation.

David H. Knott, former Sheriff and Vice Chairman of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation Committee here, announced yesterday that many contributions were being received from hotel men in this city. As a hotel man and member of the Legislative Committee of the Hotel Association, Mr. Knott has been working for the fund among the members of his organization.

One of the contributions was $500 from Charles E. McAlpin. Other hotel men on the list of founders are E. M. Statler, President of the Hotels Statler Company; C. Morton Bellak, President of the Bellak system of hotels; William J. Knott, Holley Hotel; William F. Ingold, Peter Stuyvesant Hotel; M. Stevenson, Hotel Majestic; Raymond Orteig, Hotel Brevoort; W. Johnson Quinn, Hotel St. James.

Contributions from labor organizations have played an important part in the campaign in the last few days. William Green, Secretary-Treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America, became a founder yesterday. He gave $50 toward the endowment fund.

Other contributions listed yesterday were:

Bain, Mrs. J. C.	Owen, Mrs. C. C.
Cox, B. M.	Pratt, Mrs. K.
Craft, Mrs. J. W.	Plimpton, Herbert.
De Sola, B. E.	Surdam, Mildred J.
Gorman, Douglas.	Tanning, Gerard.
Knickerbocker, J. H.	Valentine, Louise H.
Neal, Virgil.	Weir, Mary.
Olson, Charles.

Contributions are being received in Brooklyn at the People's Trust Company, 181 Montague Street, and in Manhattan at 150 Nassau Street.
